Directions for Completing, The Trial and Death of Socrates

1. Read The Trial and Death of Socrates.
2. Highlight and make notes in the margins about important details from the reading.
3. Answer the 5 (five) questions about his trial and death.

Create a mini-book of The Trial and Death of Socrates

You will create a mini book on the computer about The Trial and Death of Socrates.

Your book must contain a detailed summary about:
1. Socrates as Teacher (Who Socrates was)
2. Troubled Times (What was happening in Athens when Socrates was alive)
3. Athenian Trials (What were trials like for those Athenians charged with a crime?)
4. The Case of Socrates (Describe what occurred during the trial)
5. Carrying out the Sentence (describe the events as they happened after the trial was over)
6. The Legacy of Socrates (Why is Socrates remembered?)

Do not copy word for word from the reading. Put the information in your own words.

Your book must have 6 (six illustrations) that help to add more to your understanding of The Trial and Death of Socrates.
