First Wave Civilization (SPICE) Project

Requirements(for a proficient score)

* Geographic information about the civilization.

* at least one map that highlights your first wave civilization

* There should be a category for each SPICE with specific information (in your own words) about how this theme of history relates to your civilization.

* at least two images for each SPICE

The Process

Students must research your civilization through the lens of geography and SPICE.

Students create a story board for each "SPICE." This is a script that is written in your own words. This script will help you when developing your Glogster.

Students need to find and save images to help enhance the project.

Students will need to collaborate and utilize all the information to create and finalize their Glogster.
